

Arthur Adler <sup>11-14-79</sup>

The funeral of Art Adler, 72, was held Wednesday, Nov. 14 at the Squire Simmons and Carr funeral home of Missoula, Mont.

Organist was Betty Jenkins. Hymns "Let Me Go" and "Sunshine on my Shoulder" were sung by Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Sultz of Groton.

Burial was at Sunset Memorial Gardens in Missoula.

Honorary casket bearers were Erv Johnson, Rocky Craig, Les Donnelly, Don Birdsly, Chas. Piquette and Avery Segales.

Active casket bearers were Brad Adler, Steve Fry, Scott Adler, Allen Adler, Todd Adler and Misty Jo Adler.

Art Adler died Monday, Nov. 12, at St. Patrick Hospital in Missoula.

Art Adler was born September 23, 1907, at Groton. On September 12, 1929, he married Lillian Jost.

He lived on the farm until 1941 and then moved to Groton and worked in the meat market until 1947. He then started carpenter work. He moved to Missoula, Mont., in 1956 and continued carpenter work until he retired in 1969. He was a member of the Carpenter's Union, Local 28.

Art was an avid hunter and fisherman.

Survivors include his wife, Lillian, three sons, Arthur of Grace, Idaho; Ramon of Victor, Mont., and Wally of Drummond, Mont.; two sisters, Alma Sultz of Groton and Hattie Hoeft of Stratford; two brothers, William of Sioux Falls and Clarence of Groton and ten grandchildren and three greatgrand children.

He was preceded in death by his parents, one sister, Rose; one brother, Albert; and one granddaughter, Terri.